

Brixton Metals Private Placement Further Over-Subscribed

Not for distribution to United States Newswire Services or for dissemination in the United States

VANCOUVER, British Columbia, November 10, 2023 - Brixton Metals Corporation (TSX-V: BBB, OTCQB: BBBXF) (the “Company” or “Brixton”) is pleased to announce that, due to overwhelming interest, the Company's non-brokered private placement previously announced on October 30, 2023, and November 6, 2023, (the “Offering”) has been further over-subscribed.

The Offering will now consist of up to 15,016,666 units (“Units”), up to 49,386,593 national flow-through units (“NFT Units”) and up to 16,384,646 charity flow-through units (“Charity FT Units”), for total gross proceeds of up to $14,580,535.75.

Each Unit will consist of one common share of the Company and one half of one transferable common share purchase warrant (each whole warrant, a “Warrant”), each whole Warrant exercisable at a per share price of $0.23 until the second anniversary of the closing date of the Offering.

Each NFT Unit and Charity FT Unit will consist of one common share of the Company to be issued as a “flow-through share” within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada) (each, a “FT Share”) and one half of one transferable Warrant. Each whole Warrant comprising the NFT Units and Charity FT Units shall entitle the holder to purchase one common share of the Company at a per share price of $0.23 until the second anniversary of the closing date of the Offering. All other terms of the Offering remain unchanged.

The Offering is subject to certain conditions including the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals, including the acceptance of the TSX Venture Exchange.

The anticipated closing of the Offering is November 20, 2023. Finder's fees in amounts to be determined may be payable to persons who introduce the Company to subscribers to the Offering.

Information set forth in this news release may involve forward-looking statements under applicable securities laws. Forward-looking statements are statements that relate to future, not past, events. In this context, forward-looking statements often address expected future business and financial performance, and often contain words such as “anticipate”, “believe”, “plan”, “estimate”, “expect”, and “intend”, statements that an action or event “may”, “might”, “could”, “should”, or “will” be taken or occur, or other similar expressions. All statements other than statements of historical fact included herein are forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, statements regarding potential quantity and/or grade of minerals, potential size and expansion of a mineralized zone, proposed timing of exploration and development plans, proposed timing for completion of the Private Placement, the expected number of Common Shares to be issued and gross proceeds of the Private Placement, and the use of proceeds of the Private Placement. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause our actual results, performance or achievements, or other future events, to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such factors include, among others, the following risks: the need for additional financing; operational risks associated with mineral exploration; fluctuations in commodity prices; title matters; the fact that the Private Placement may not close as scheduled or at all, and the additional risks identified in the annual information form of the Company or other reports and filings with the TSXV and applicable Canadian securities regulators. Forward-looking statements are made based on management's beliefs, estimates and opinions on the date that statements are made and the Company undertakes no obligation to update forward-looking statements if these beliefs, estimates and opinions or other circumstances should change, except as required by applicable securities laws. Investors are cautioned against attributing undue certainty to forward-looking statements.

Brixton does not undertake to update any forward-looking information except in accordance with applicable securities laws.
